- 2022 Ligonier Ministries State of Theology Survey: 48% of American Evangelicals believe that God learns and adapts to different circumstances.

- The very nature of "infinity" implies an unlimited, all-encompassing entity that cannot be divided or shared with another.

Psalm 139:1-6 You have searched me, Lord, and you know me. 2 You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. 3 You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. 4 Before a word is on my tongue you, Lord, know it completely. 5 You hem me in behind and before, and you lay your hand upon me. 6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.*

- God knows every detail of our lives.

Isaiah 46:10a I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come.*

- God fully knows the past, the present, and the future.

Psalm 139:16 Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.*

- God knows us intimately.

Isaiah 55:8-9 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the Lord. 9 "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.*

Romans 11:33 Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out!*

- God's knowledge is without limit.

- For believers, the truth that God knows everything should be a source of tremendous comfort and encouragement.
